

OBITUARIES

Annabelle MacInnes

We regret to announce the passing of our dear aunt Annabelle MacInnes on April 17, 2010 at the age of 94.

Born at Indian Brook, Victoria County, March 17, 1916, Anna was the daughter of Murdoch and Christy MacInnes. She was the youngest of 11 children. Anna served her country in WWII, and after returning from the war, moved to California, where she lived until her retirement. She moved back to Cape Breton in the mid 1980s, and lived in North Shore, Sydney, and Iona, and then returned to the states (Texas) where she lived with her brother Ken, and later her niece Marilyn.

She was the last surviving member of her immediate family. She is survived by many nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by sisters, Christine, Claire, Catherine, Evelyn; brothers, Bill, Malcolm, Wallace, Ken, Donald, John.

Anna's life was celebrated in a private family service at the graveside on August 1, 2010, with burial at Riverside Cemetery, French River.

Marie C. MacRae

Marie C. (Morrison) MacRae of Brookline, passed away July 19, 2010.

She was the beloved wife of the late Murdock M. MacRae; loving mother of Murdock M. and his wife Joan M. MacRae of Walpole, Doreen Hurton and her husband Brian of Peabody, Jacqueline M. MacRae of Brookline and the late John K. MacRae; devoted daughter of the late John K. and Lexina (MacIver) Morrison; dear sister of Kathleen Carmichael of Arlington, Fraser Morrison of Holbrook, Murdock Morrison, Jacqueline Cantwell and Mabel Best, all of Cape Breton Island; and the late Harold, Donald, Henry and Russell Morrison.

She is also survived by her three grandchildren, Brian C., Nina and Nicholas her "granddaughter" Holly whom she loved dearly; her great grandchildren, Erich and Scott; longtime friend Eleanor Wendler of Brookline; and many nieces and nephews. A Funeral Service was held in the First Presbyterian Church in Brookline. Interment was in Walnut Hills Cemetery.

Roderick Leo MacNeil

We announce the sudden passing, at the Kings County Memorial Hospital in Montague on Tuesday, July 20, 2010, of Roderick Leo MacNeil of Belfast and formerly of Iona, Cape Breton, N.S., in his 67th year.

Beloved husband of Anne Marie (nee Peters). Loving father to Leo (Christina), Grand Prairie, Roderick (Tandi), Stratford, Jason, Calgary, Amanda, Belfast, Kevin, Grande Prairie, Kirk (Mandi) McEnne, Alberta. Cherished grandfather of Sydney, Sadie, Emma, Wim, Isaac, Morgan, Ava and Lee. Also survived by his adopted sister, Margie McEhlorne, Halifax; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Predeceased by his parents, Rory D. and Mary Josephine MacNeil, brothers and sisters, Sadie Fowler, Betty Kressner, Neil, Micheal, Lawerance, Roy and Bernie MacNeil.

If so desired, memorials to the Heart & Stroke Foundation of P.E.I. or to the Children's Wish Foundation would be appreciated.

Lawerance Bernard Jr.

Lawerance Bernard Jr., 48, of Wagmatcook, Victoria County, N.S., died July 20, 2010, at home.

He was the son of Lawerance Bernard and the late Ida Mae (Simon) Bernard.

He was a member of Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha Church, Wagmatcook.

He was a friendly guy, who always had a smile on his face and loved to make people laugh. He loved hunting, fishing and playing baseball, which was his favourite sport. His disability with his hands never stopped him doing anything. He was always a very busy guy, always on the go, and we all knew him as Jr.

He is survived by four brothers, Wisten, Rodney, Spencer and Allister, all of Wagmatcook; one sister, Lorriane Marie Bernard (Francis Bright), Wagmatcook; six nieces, Chasity, Madison, Charlie, Kathy, Heather and Nathile as well four nephews, Devan, Tyler Isadore, Edwin and Jake Bernard. He is also survived by several uncles and aunts.

He was predeceased by grandparents, Frank Larry and Susan Bernard and Mary Ellen and Andrew Simon and Godparents, Jane Peck and Tom Stevens.

Burial was in Queen of the World Cemetery. Donations may be made to the Heart and Stroke Foundation.

Rebecca 'Becky' Carey

It is with deep sadness that we announce the peaceful passing of our mother, grandmother, aunt and friend Rebecca 'Becky' Carey, 91, resident of Hare Avenue, North Sydney, on Thursday, July 22, 2010, at her home.

Becky was born in Florence, April 22, 1919, the daughter of the late James and Christena Greenwell.

She attended school in Sydney Mines and graduated from Nova Scotia Teachers College in 1939. She taught in New Campbellton for several years and then in the Northside area for many years until her retirement in 1984.

Becky was a strong believer in the value of education and encouraged her students to do the best they could and was very proud of her students accomplishments. Becky was always an active person, she enjoyed swimming and was a regular visitor to Groves Point and Florence beaches until her illness precluded that activity. She had a strong circle of friends with whom she enjoyed bridge, travel and golf in her retirement. She was a member of St. Giles Presbyterian Church and was very active in church functions until the onset of her illness.

Becky is survived by her daughter,

Lynn (Bob) Wall, Ottawa; her son, Edward Carey, Baddeck; and grandchildren, Meaghan and T.J.; and also many nieces and nephews. She was dearly cared for by Marion Stroud, Winnie Parsons and Edna Savoury who were daily companions the past number of years. She was also well cared for by the staff of Northside Home Care. Becky was the last surviving member of her immediate family.

She was predeceased by her husband, Clifton Carey, daughter, Judy, brothers, John, Isaac, Neil, George, Earl, Archie and Robert Greenwell, sisters, Florence MacKillop, Christena MacAulay, Jenny Brown, Mary Dean, Dorothy Ferguson and Janet Greenwell.

Burial was at Lakeside Cemetery, North Sydney. Memorial donations may be sent to St. Giles Presbyterian Church.

Henry Joseph O'Brien

We, the family deeply regret to announce the passing of Henry Joseph O'Brien of McLeod's Road, Glace Bay on Wednesday, July 28, 2010, at the Cape Breton Regional Hospital, Sydney.

Born in Pleasant Bay, May 30, 1935, Henry was the son of the late Joseph and Viola (Timmons) O'Brien.

Henry worked for Devco for over 30 years and worked in collieries 20 and 26.

Henry was an outdoorsman and had a laugh and smile that could fill up a room. He loved to fish and hunt and could be seen on the waters of Margaree or in the forests of Loch Lomond.

Henry is survived by his loving wife, Joan; son, Nelson (Marie); and granddaughter, Sabetha. Also left to mourn are Henry's six stepchildren, Reggie, Harold, Wally, Carl, Katherine and Karen along with 12 step grandchildren and five step great-grandchildren.

Interment was in the parish cemetery.

Brenda Marie (Slade) Donovan

Your example has opened up a window into my soul that lets in the sunshine. Brenda Donovan passed away at home Wednesday, July 28, 2010, with her loving family by her side.

She was the wife of Allan 'Bump' Donovan and the daughter of Marie Delaney and stepdaughter of the late Ronald Delaney.

Born and raised in Sydney, she was a graduate of Holy Angels Convent.

Brenda worked along side her husband as a fisherwoman for 19 years as well as entertaining the children of the community as Mrs. Claus.

Besides her husband and mother, she is survived by her six pack, Marie (Leo), South Harbour, Patricia (Joel), Cape North, Karey Lee (Ray), Smelt Brook, Laura (Ryan), Ingonish Harbour, Amy (Anthony), Halifax, Allan (Desiria), Ingonish Harbour. Also survived by her nine and a half affectionately named Holy Terrors, Gracie, Daniel, Hallie, Rory, River, Nate, Corey, Declan and Leelyn.

Brenda's siblings were, sisters, Debbie (Michael) Whitty, Ingonish Harbour, Shirley (Bill) Puddicombe, Frenchvale; brothers, Tommy (Pixie) Slade, Leitches Creek, Kevin Slade, Sydney; stepsisters, Jean (Brian) Brophy, Pt. Edward, Cheryl (Carl) MacLeod, Middle River. Also survived by her mother-in-law, Margorie Donovan.

Brenda was predeceased by her father, Thomas Slade.

Brenda's life was celebrated at St. Peter's Church. Memorial donations can be made to North of Smokey Palliative Care or St. Peter's parish graveyard fund.

IN MEMORIAM

In Memory of Roy, who passed away July 16, 2007

Three years have passed Roy
Since the day you died,
But I still miss you
Like it was yesterday.

Remembering your love and caring ways,
will always get me through these days.

Always remembered, always loved, Mary
